Picnic Shelters

Host a picnic or party! Squire Creek has two, very reasonably-priced, 30' wide shelters and plenty of room to spread out. Each has power and water (during the summer months), a cooking grill, and seating for 20.

Campsites

Each of our 33 sites offer ample space for tents and many have room for an RV. Sites include a picnic table, a fire ring with grill top, and lots and lots of nature. Water spigots are spread throughout the campground and winterized during the cold season. Restrooms are open during the summer months and comfort stations are provided during the winter months. Sorry, no dump station services are available.

Squire Creek Campground

Squire Creek Campground provides tent & RV camping in a beautiful 2nd-growth forest. The 20-acre park is adjacent to Squire Creek and the perfect staging location for enjoying the Mt. Baker -Snoqualmie National Forest.

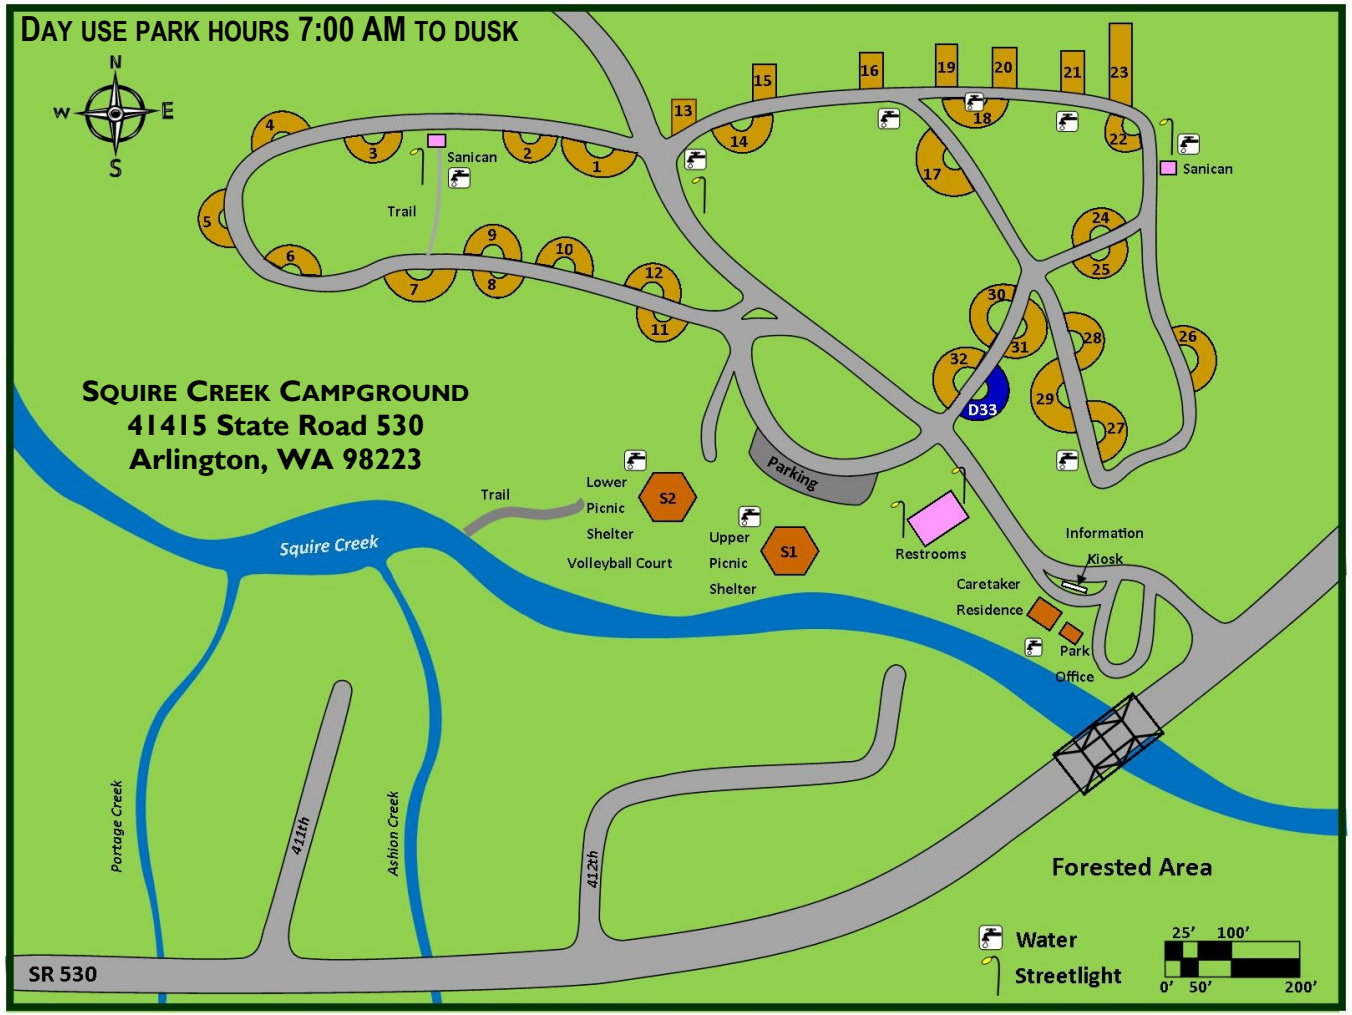
"When I was a Kid" Camping

WELCOME TO SQUIRE CREEK PARK! Located just outside the town of Darrington and nestled among the second-growth trees, Squire Creek offers the same no-frills kind of camping you enjoyed as a kid. No hook-ups, no wi-fi, no satellite TV. Just the sounds of the forest, the creek, and a crackling fire.

During your stay, discover the rugged Mt Baker - Snoqualmie National Forest. Hike to Whitehorse Mountain, hunt mushrooms, visit a fire look-out, or marvel at the majesty of a cascading waterfall. All from the many trails accessed in the area. Take a trip to town and watch a parade, visit a bazaar, or participate in the Darrington Bluegrass Festival.

Getting There

From I-5 take SR530 east through Arlington; drive 26 miles toward Darrington. Look for signs. Park entrance is on the left.



Discover (more)

After your hike, relax along the banks of Squire Creek where you can view spawning salmon in the fall. Look up! Among the moss-laden trees, you just may spot one of the many eagles that are home to this area.
