1. Call to Order:

The meeting was called to order at 6:00 p.m. by Co-Chair Nate Nehring.

1.a. Introductions/Roll Call

Roll call was taken (as listed above).

1.b. Citizen Comments

No comments.

2. Approval of Meeting Minutes (7-28-21)

Josh Dugan moved to approve the minutes of July 28, 2021, as written. Bryan Wahl seconded, and the motion passed unanimously.

3. Update Items

a. Summary of PSRC Board Actions and Activities

Ben Bakkenta reported that the Executive Board had approved the roster for the Equity Advisory Committee. On November 4th the Growth Management Policy Board will discuss coordination with the tribes on comprehensive planning.

b. EASC

Garry Clark reported on EASC's activities including their program, Snohomish County "Creative Haven" and hiring of several key positions.

4. Action Items

5. Briefings, Discussion Items

a. 2044 Initial Growth Targets

Steve Toy described the GMA requirements for adopting initial growth targets and later reconciling them. He reviewed the population targets recommended by PAC; Frank Slusser reviewed the employment targets. Their presentation can be viewed here.

Yorik Stevens-Wajda described the target for Everett and what the city has been doing to gauge their ability to meet that target as well as the upcoming measures they will be taking.

Michael Kattermann discussed the coordination between Bothell and Lynnwood on the deficit in available area to meet the targets as well as Bothell's preparation to address the deficit.

Russ Wright spoke to the targets and deficits for cities and towns. Steve Toy discussed HCT, rural and unincorporated areas. He summarized the next steps.

Kate Nesse summarized the CAB's report on the growth targets.

Members asked how market and infrastructure are considered in setting the targets. They asked who is responsible for meeting targets in the MUGAs. Members, also, asked about job growth coming to the Smokey Point corridor and Everett's possible support for duplexes and ADUs. Finally, there were questions about why Marysville and Arlington were included as HCT communities, and how changes in growth patterns due to COVID-19 would be considered.

b. Coordinator's Report

Ms. Pruitt brought the SCT committees report to the attention of the members.
