Follow-up to Stanwood Shooting Investigation

On March 10th 2012 at approximately 3:25 PM the Stanwood Police Department responded to a shooting incident in the City of Stanwood where the seven year old daughter of a Marysville Police Officer had been shot. The Stanwood Police Department requested the help of the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office and as a result the Sheriff's Office Major Crimes Unit is investigating the incident. Early this morning the victim of this incident succumbed to her injuries and died at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle. The Snohomish County Medical Examiner will be responsible for releasing the cause and manner of death along with the identity of the victim. The investigation is on-going and there will be no further information available regarding the investigation until at least early next week.
