 Thanksgiving wishes from Executive Reardon

Each Thanksgiving, we are given the chance to celebrate our blessings and to enjoy the company of friends and family – as well as good food and football!

I hope this Thanksgiving finds you healthy and sharing a life filled with many reasons to be thankful.

This year, I'd like to express my appreciation for the work our dedicated Snohomish County employees continue to accomplish despite difficult financial times. Unlike many other government entities, we continue to operate from a balanced budget while protecting the critical services our residents demand. Their hard work and commitment to service makes everything possible.

In addition to counting our blessings, Thanksgiving is a time to remember those in our community who may be struggling this holiday season. The still sputtering national economy has only increased the challenges faced by many residents and those who seek to come to their aid. Whether by contributing to a local food bank or non-profit service provider, I encourage everyone to do what they can to ensure each local resident shares in the joys of the holiday season.

I wish each of you a safe and wonderful Thanksgiving with many blessings ahead this holiday season.

Sincerely,
