 Happy Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is traditionally a time to celebrate the blessings each of us has enjoyed during the year as well as an opportunity to enjoy the company of family, friends and food.

Even during these difficult economic times, Snohomish County residents have much for which to be thankful. Still, I encourage you this holiday to take a moment to remember those in need and to step out and help others in any way you can. And let us never forget the sacrifices that our military men, women and their families have made so that we can continue to enjoy this time each year with our loved ones.

I wish you and your family a safe and happy Thanksgiving Holiday.

How are we doing?

Did you know that you can track how well the County is meeting its performance goals?

The SnoStat system tracks how well the County is delivering services, the costs of those services, and the efficiency and effectiveness of service delivery.
