The accident occurred at the intersection of SR-2 and I-5 around noon when a white flatbed 1998 GMC truck with a "DDS Construction" logo on the door intentionally backed over the patrol deputy during a traffic stop. The truck had been reported stolen earlier that morning from a construction site at the 1100 block of Grand Ave in Everett. The stolen truck was later recovered from the 9500 block of 205th Ave SE in Monroe.

The deputy was treated at a local hospital for minor injuries and released that same day.
