Police Search for Missing Stanwood Girl

STANWOOD –Snohomish County Sheriff's Office are searching for 13 year-old Karly A. McKay who was last seen at her residence at the 19000 block of Happy Valley Rd in Stanwood this afternoon. It is believed that she has been abducted by her biological mother, 31 year-old Trina K. Anderson, whose custody of Karly was recently revoked by DSHS. Anderson is required have her visits with her daughter supervised, Anderson is 5'10", approx. 140 lbs. with brown hair and is believed to be traveling in a 2002 Lexus SUV, Washington license plate 341YPL. Karly is 5', approx. 90-100 lbs. with blonde-brown hair, and blue eyes.

Karly was last seen by her grandfather when he dropped her off at home after school around 3 p.m.. When Karly's father arrived home from work around 6:00 p.m. tonight, Karly was missing. Karly has no history of being runaway and evidence in the house has led investigators to believe that Anderson was at the residence at the time of Karly's disappearance.

Anyone with information on the location of Anderson or Trina is asked to call the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office tip line at 425-388-3845.
