9 year-old Boy Pulled from Pilchuck River

SNOHOMISH, Wash. - A 9 year-old boy was pulled from the Pilchuck River at the 12700 block of Dubuque Rd and airlifted to Children's Hospital for treatment.

The boy's mother called 911 around 2 p.m. after the boy went under water and did not come back up to the surface. Family members and bystanders began searching for the boy while waiting for aid to arrive. A bystander found the boy and pulled him to the river bank. Family members began to administer CPR. The boy's current status at this time is unknown.

Additional details regarding the rescue will be released as they become available. Any information regarding the boy's health status should be directed to Children's Hospital.
