The Snohomish County Sheriff's Office Major Crimes Unit has provided the following list of missing people updated this afternoon with two additions since this morning. The release of information is limited to name, age and city of residence. Detectives have carefully reviewed each of these cases based on available information and conversations with family members. It is presumed that the people on this list are missing in connection with the landslide. Anyone who should not be on this list is asked to call the Sheriff's Office tip line immediately at (425) 388-3845.
