The Snohomish County Sheriff's Office Major Crimes Unit has removed one more name from the list of missing. An updated list will be published daily (weekdays) by 4:30 p.m.

The release of information is limited to name, age and city of residence. Detectives have carefully reviewed each of these cases based on available information and conversations with family members. It is presumed that the people on this list are missing in connection with the landslide. Anyone who should not be on this list is asked to call the Sheriff's Office tip line immediately at (425) 388-3845.
