Sheriff's Office Offers Educational Visit to Elementary and Middle Schools by Chief Pilot

The Snohomish County Sheriff's Office is offering free educational visits by Chief Pilot Bill Quistorf to local elementary and middle schools. Mr. Quistorf will give a 30-45 minute slide presentation on law enforcement, firefighting, and rescue helicopter operations. Students may also take part in a discussion of helicopter aerodynamics. Field trips to the Snohomish County Search and Rescue facility near Snohomish for classes or small groups can also be scheduled at no cost.

Interested schools may phone or email Mr. Quistorf at the contact information below to schedule a classroom visit or field trip.
