

Snohomish County
Conservation and Natural Resources
Arts Commission

Contact:

Annique Bennett
Communications Specialist
Annique.Bennett@snoco.org
425-740-4309

Rose Intveld
Communications Specialist
Rose.Intveld@snoco.org
425-388-6621

Inspire Washington's Cultural Futures Roadshow Coming to Snohomish County on May 25, 2023

Snohomish County, Wash., May 18, 2023.

Who: Artists, organizations, administrators, elected officials, and enthusiasts are urged to attend this interactive, in-person event hosted by the Snohomish County Arts Commission and Port of Everett.

What: Inspire Washington brings the Cultural Futures Roadshow to Snohomish County!

The program will include:

- Speakers: Snohomish County Councilmember Megan Dunn and Snohomish County Department of Conservation and Natural Resources Director Tom Teigen
- A debrief of state legislative session wins such as HB 1575, which provides councilmanic authority for the cultural access programs, and how communities can start them
- Education on how to get ready to receive funds from the $2 million sector award
- Snohomish County industry priorities for state level advocacy and support

When: May 25, 2023

5:00-5:30 p.m.: Doors open and refreshments

5:30-7:00 p.m.: Presentations and speakers

Where: Port of Everett Admin. Bldg. - Blue Heron Room
1205 Craftsman Way (at Waterfront Center)
Everett, WA 98201

Inspire Washington is the statewide advocacy organization for the cultural sector, promoting the value of science, heritage, and arts programming within every city, town, and hamlet.

LINKS TO REGISTER AND MORE INFORMATION

- RSVP: <https://inspirewashington.org/events/cultural-futures>
- More about Inspire Washington and Cultural Futures 2023
- HB 1575: Cultural Access Programs

About the Snohomish County Arts Commission

The Snohomish County Arts Commission oversees the county's arts program and serves as an advisory board. Its mission is to promote artistic diversity, expand access to arts education, support local artists, and encourage an understanding of cultural expression. Through the arts' ability to foster empathy and respect, our communities grow/become closer to each other and their environment. www.snocoarts.org/

###