Executive Lovick to deliver annual Snohomish County update Feb. 25 – in the morning and at noon

Snohomish County Executive John Lovick will present his Snohomish County update Wednesday, Feb. 25.

Following a challenging and tragic 2014, Snohomish County is rebounding with resiliency and vibrancy. Executive Lovick will share what the county has accomplished and what's ahead in critical areas such as economic development, community safety, environmental responsibility, and serving vulnerable populations. He'll also provide an update on the SR530 Slide recovery efforts.

Like last year, Lovick will make two separate presentations. The first is a ticketed event at Xfinity Arena hosted by Economic Alliance Snohomish County; the second is a free event on the Snohomish County campus in Everett that is open to the public and media.

- 7:30 to 9 a.m., Snohomish County update, Xfinity Arena, downtown Everett
- Noon, State of the County speech, Snohomish County Public Meeting Room, 3000 Rockefeller Ave. (Robert J. Drewel Building).

The public and county staff are invited to attend the free presentation at noon.

Parking is available on streets around the county campus, or for a fee in the parking garage. For more information about the presentation, please contact Rebecca Hover.
