Are you the next member of the Evergreen State Fair Advisory Board?

Love the fair? Show you care!

If contributing to the greater good and keeping Snohomish County connected to its agricultural heritage is important to you, the Evergreen State Fair Advisory Board would love to hear from you.

The volunteer board has an immediate opening for a representative for County District 2, which includes the cities of Everett and Mukilteo and a large part of the Tulalip Reservation. Members meet monthly and more frequently during the fair.

The core of the board's ambitions and tasks is helping manage and preserve the largest publicly owned fair in the Pacific Northwest:

- maintaining the county's ties to its agricultural roots
- expanding programs for youngsters and teens
- encouraging growing local food
- broadening public safety efforts
- intensifying child-safety programs
- evaluating budgets
- reviewing and recommending entertainment
- initiating forward-looking projects

"Every August, Snohomish County throws a 12-day party for more than 340,000 friends and neighbors," said fair manager Hal Gausman. "Advisory board members are critical to the 107-year success of the fair. They help refine the bigger vision and shape what it means to have fun at the fair."

For more information about joining the advisory board, contact Hal Gausman at 360-605-6700 or hal.gausman@snoco.org. Get the nomination/application form at <http://www.evergreenfair.org/131/fair-advisory-board>.

"Picture the Fun" is the theme for the 2015 Evergreen State Fair scheduled for Aug. 27 through Sept. 7. The Evergreen State Fair is located at 14405 179th Ave SE, Monroe, WA 98272.
