Snohomish County Ethic Commission Seeks Applicants

Everett, Snohomish County—Snohomish County is seeking 3 interested applicants for the Snohomish County Ethics Commission. Snohomish County Code Chapter 2.50.080 created the Ethics Commission to receive complaints of ethics violations and otherwise administer the Code of Ethics in Chapter 2.50 of Snohomish County Code.

The commission is composed of five members who are eligible to serve up to two three-year terms. Members who have received appointment to an unexpired term consisting of less than one year remaining are eligible for two three-year terms. The commission is required by SCC 2.50.100 to meet at least twice annually and may meet as frequently as it deems necessary.

To apply, please complete the online application form. Applications will be accepted until the vacancies have been filled. Appointments are confirmed by the Snohomish County Council on a recommendation of the Snohomish County Executive. For more information, contact Lacey Harper at 425.388.3699 or Lacey.Harper@snoco.org.
