

Washington's Seat Belt Law RCW 46.61.687

- Everyone is safer in the back seat.
- Children under age 13 must ride in the back seat, whenever practical to do so.
- It's not about their size and weight, it's their bone strength and structure. Their bodies aren't strong enough to handle the forces of a crash.

