Deputy Brittani Gilfeather has been with the Sheriff’s Office since May 2013. During her time as a Corrections Deputy, she has gone above and beyond the required duties and has demonstrated an extreme passion for her profession.

Deputy Brittani Gilfeather is an active member of the Corrections Bureau Intelligence Team, which is responsible for identifying and tracking gang members and preventing drug trafficking inside the jail. Deputy Gilfeather has established a professional rapport with inmates, which has led her to drugs and other contraband. She has been able to develop confidential informants within the prisoner population, and a way for them to safely pass on information to her without being identified by other inmates.

Deputy Gilfeather recently became a Field Training Officer. She continues to work on developing her job skills and passing her knowledge on to others. She works well with her supervisors and other FTO’s and senior staff. You can frequently find her discussing situations involving inmates and shares her knowledge and intel with her peers. She is constantly on-the-go, working to keep her co-workers and the inmates safe.

For her positive attitude, strong work ethic, and dedication to the Sheriff’s Office, and for her selfless actions and dedication to her profession, the 2016 Corrections Deputy of Year is awarded to Corrections Deputy Brittani Gilfeather.
