EVERETT, Wash. - A domestic violence call that originated in Lynwood ended in a shooting that left one man dead in the 3900 block of Grand Ave in Everett. The incident started at the 17500 block of 54th Pl W with a domestic violence call to 911 around 6 p.m. between the suspect and his girlfriend. The victim reported that the suspect had threatened to kill her and then fled. The suspect, an Everett resident, had a felony Department of Corrections escape warrant. In their investigation to locate the suspect, Lynnwood Police Department officers went to a residence in the 3900 block of Friday Ave in Everett. The 44 year-old suspect fled that residence and was contacted by Lynnwood police officers in the 3900 block of Grand Ave. Around 11:30 p.m., a struggle ensued during an attempt to place the suspect in custody. Initial witness reports indicate the suspect attempted to grab the officers gun. A Lynnwood officer shot the suspect and he died at the scene.

The incident is being investigated by Snohomish County Multi-Agency Response Team, a team of detectives from various Snohomish County law enforcement agencies who respond to and investigate police use-of-force incidents in the county. The involved officer was a four year veteran of the Lynnwood Police Department.

Grand Ave between 41st and 38th will re-open around 9 a.m. today

Identification of the suspect, as well as cause and manner of death, will be determined by the Snohomish County Medical Examiner.
