

JOIN OUR TEAM!

Review proposals for Puget Sound recovery!

- Do you have a special interest in the recovery of Puget Sound?
- Are you an expert in science, policy, management, or planning?
- Would you like to connect with like-minded professionals to choose the best recovery actions?

If, YES, then we have an opportunity for you!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

We are looking for reviewers from public and private sectors, non-profits, and academia from throughout the Sound who have expertise in:

- Protection and restoration of habitat, including incentive programs, research and monitoring, and land use planning
- Salmon recovery, including policy and regulation, science and monitoring, and restoration actions

FIND OUT MORE

QUESTIONS? PLEASE CONTACT:

- Habitat: Julie Watson (julie.watson@dfw.wa.gov)
- Chinook and other salmon: Amber Moore (amber.moore@psp.wa.gov)
- General/Other: Jennifer Pouliotte (action.agenda@psp.wa.gov)

Please forward to your network!

WHO:

Professional experts in habitat or salmon recovery, public outreach and education, and finance

TIME COMMITMENT:

20-40 hours over 2 months including a free workshop June 6-7, 2018, at the Seabeck Conference Center.

TO PARTICIPATE:

Indicate your interest here by March 30, 2018