Ms. Manopoulos - As you may know, the Point Wells project is actually in unincorporated Snohomish County, so any mailings that the County undertakes regarding SEPA or the permit itself will be from whatever list they maintain. I am copying the Snohomish County project manager, Darryl Eastin, on this reply. If you desire further information from the County about its processes, I suggest you contact Mr. Eastin directly.

In addition, the City of Shoreline is maintaining an email list to whom we send periodic updates about the City's actions regarding the Point Wells project. I have asked David Levitan of my staff and John Norris of our City Manager's office to add your email address to that list.
