ARTICLE 6 - LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

Section 1 - Employer Rights and Authority. The Employer, acting through appropriate officers, has the exclusive right to manage its affairs, to direct and control its operations, and independently to make, carry out and execute all plans and decisions deemed necessary in its judgment for its welfare, advancement, or best interests. Such management prerogatives shall include all matters not specifically limited by the agreement herein and any term and condition of employment not specifically established or modified by this Agreement shall remain solely within the discretion of the Employer to modify, establish, or eliminate.
Section 2. By way of example, the Employer retains the full right to operate and manage all staff, facilities, and equipment; to establish functions and programs; to set and amend budgets; to determine the utilization of technology; to establish and modify the organizational structure; to select, direct and determine the number of personnel; to set and establish the work schedules of employees; and to perform any inherent managerial function not specifically limited by this Agreement.

Section 3 - Subcontracting. The Employer retains the right to subcontract the Employer's operation, in whole or in part, through contracts with non-governmental entities and government agencies subject to the following procedures:

A. The Employer's exercise of the right to subcontract shall not be subject to Article 15 Grievance Procedure.

B. The Employer will notify the Association in writing of the nature, scope, and approximate dates of the subcontracting within seven (7) days after a decision to subcontract. Following the notification, the Association shall have sixty (60) days to negotiate the impact; provided, the Employer's right to implement contracting out thirty (30) days after the written notice to the Association of the decision shall be unaffected by the impact of the bargaining process. The bargaining process may continue beyond the date of the implementation of the contracting out.

C. If a reduction of positions occurs, Article 10, Layoff, applies.

Section 4 - Collective Bargaining and the Employer's Authority. All collective bargaining with respect to hours and other conditions of employment which are not wage related shall be conducted by authorized representatives of the Association and of the Court. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as limiting the Court's authority as conferred by law as of the effective date of this agreement, or in any way abridging or reducing such authority.

Section 5 - Standards of Performance. The Association agrees for employees who are covered by this Agreement that they will individually and collectively perform efficient work and services; that they will use their influence and efforts to protect the property of the Employer. Employees agree to maintain reasonable standards of performance.

ARTICLE 7 - NON-DISCRIMINATION

There shall be no unlawful discrimination by the Association or Employer against any individual with respect to compensation, term or conditions of employment, nor with respect to Association membership, because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, physical, sensory or mental disability, or age except where age, sex, physical, sensory or mental disability is a bona fide occupational qualification. Any violation shall constitute a breach of this agreement.
ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYEE RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES AND ASSOCIATION PRIVILEGES

Section 1. No employee shall be discriminated against for exercising the employee's rights as an Association member or a non-member.

Section 2 - Association Activities. The Employer agrees that during working hours, on the Employer's premises, and during their breaks or with the approval of the Court Administrator duly elected Court employee representatives of the Association shall be allowed without loss of pay, to:

A. Post Association notices.

B. Distribute Association literature which shall be restricted to the employees' lounge.

D. Transmit communications, authorized by the Association or its officers, to the Employer or his/her representative.

E. Consult with the Employer, its representative, Association Officers, or other Association representatives concerning any provisions of this Agreement, by first receiving the approval of the Court Administrator. It is the intent of both parties that the investigation of grievance matters by the shop steward(s) be during non-working hours, unless otherwise approved by the Court Administrator.

Time off without pay for investigating a formal grievance will be allowed, subject to the pre-approval of the Employer for release time. This shall not be construed to allow time off to investigate employee complaints.

Time off with pay for meeting(s) regarding a formal grievance will be allowed, where the employee or Association President's or designee's attendance is required as a part of the grievance procedure as set forth in Article 15, Step 1, 2, or 3. This shall be limited to meetings with the Employer.

F. The Employer agrees that accredited representatives of the Association shall have reasonable access to a designated non-public area of the Employer during working hours for the purpose of investigating and discussing grievances, provided the Association representative does not interfere with the work of the employees. A suitable location will be provided for this purpose.

G. The Association agrees to provide the Employer with an updated list of duly elected Court employee representatives and those accredited representatives of the Association within seven (7) working days of the day the appointment is made.
H. Upon the written request of the Association, the Employer agrees to provide a list of employees filling positions (including promotions and reclassifications) within the bargaining unit for which such information is requested, within seven (7) working days of receipt of the written request.

I. The Employer and Association recognize it is in their mutual interest that issues which arise concerning administration of this labor agreement should be resolved as expeditiously as possible and that the President of the Association which is a party to this agreement occasionally meet with representatives of management for the purpose of resolving those issues. Subject to approval of the Employer, the local president shall be allowed to perform such duties on paid time.

J. Both the Employer and Association will use reasonable judgment in the application of Article 8, Section 2.

Section 3 - Association Use of Bulletin Boards. The County agrees to allow the Association to use designated departmental bulletin boards, the main purpose of which shall be to post Association information. The Association agrees to limit posting of such notices to its bulletin board space. It is specifically understood that no notices of a discriminatory or political nature, nor notices that would be offensive to a reasonable person, shall be posted. Each posting shall be initialed and dated by the Association Official responsible for the posting. The County agrees that the Association may distribute via e-mail, as authorized by the Association President, any such notices that are deemed acceptable to post on an Association Bulletin Board. It is understood that as part of the public domain, any e-mail communication or other public record can and will be subject to public disclosure according to appropriate statute.

Section 4. The Employer shall provide each employee with ready access to the department's administrative and personnel policies. The Employer shall make available to each employee all rules and procedures/policies related to the performance of the duties of that position.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

Section 1. The work week shall consist of forty (40) hours, and shifts for full time employees shall be no less than eight (8) consecutive hours. Days off will be consecutive except when necessary to implement the first week of a schedule change. Alternative schedules outside of the standard working hours will be based on operational needs and/or by mutual agreement so long as adequate coverage for shifts and programs are achieved. Schedules will be reviewed on an annual basis no later than July 1, or by mutual agreement, for the effective schedule year September to August. The parties agree to meet and discuss any concerns in good faith for up to thirty (30) calendar days from sharing of the schedule. Management will post the new schedule for bid upon completion of the thirty (30) days or upon mutual agreement, whichever comes first. Schedules will be bid on annually by classification and seniority. Except for emergency situations, changes to schedules for operational reasons shall be made with two (2) weeks notice.
Section 2. Required overtime shall be offered first to all employees in the classification in which the opportunity exists by classification seniority and secondarily to employees in other classifications. If no employees in other classifications volunteer for the overtime, then it shall be assigned on an inverse seniority basis by the classification in which the overtime opportunity exists. This shall not prohibit the employer from using non-bargaining unit personnel in an acting capacity for longer term absences or during the process in which the employer is actively filling a vacancy.

Section 3. In order for a holiday to be considered time worked, the holiday(s) must be worked, or if not worked must fall within the employee's scheduled work days. Example: An employee's schedule is from Tuesday through Saturday. The holiday occurs on a Monday and is not worked. The employee will receive eight (8) hours of holiday pay but it would not count towards overtime unless the employee actually worked the holiday.

Section 4 - Meal Breaks. All employees assigned to eight (8) hour shift exclusive of the meal period shall be entitled to a minimum thirty (30) minute meal break during their shift period. Such employees shall not be on call except for emergencies during their meal period. Employees assigned to an eight (8) hour shift inclusive of a meal period shall remain on the premises and be on call during their meal period.

Section 5. All employees shall receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest breaks during their assigned work shifts. Employees in Detention Services shall remain on the premises unless otherwise authorized.

ARTICLE 10 - LAYOFF

Section 1 - Seniority. A seniority list by classification shall be established within the Court and such seniority list shall be posted and kept current on a quarterly basis. The employee will notify the Employer within thirty (30) days after posting of the seniority list of any error on the seniority list.

Section 2 - Adjustment to Seniority Due to Leave Without Pay. An employee on leave without pay shall continue to accrue seniority during the first five hundred twenty (520) cumulative hours of leave without pay each calendar year. The five hundred twenty (520) hours will be pro-rated for part-time employees. Seniority dates shall be adjusted on a day-for-day (eight hours equals one day) basis for all leave without pay in excess of five hundred twenty (520) hours; provided, however, that an employee on disability leave of absence on account of industrial injury or occupational disease shall continue to accrue seniority during the first twenty-four (24) months, and the employee's seniority date shall be adjusted on a day-to-day basis for all days in excess of twenty-four (24) months.

Section 3 - Loss of Seniority. An employee shall lose all seniority credit in the event of separation from employment except layoff.

Section 4 - Calculation of Seniority. Seniority shall be established first by classification; second by bargaining unit hire date; and third by previous County employment.
Final interview scores to include verbal and written shall be used to determine order of seniority when available. The person receiving the higher score shall be given the higher seniority.

In the event that two or more newly hired employees have the same or no interview score, a lottery system may be used to establish seniority.

Section 5 - Reduction in Force -- Criteria for Layoff. The Employer shall be allowed to layoff for lack of work or lack of funds or a good faith reorganization or other legitimate reasons. The Employer agrees to advise the Association when such actions are pending.

Section 6 - Order of Layoff. Layoff shall be by classification. Employees shall be laid off in order of their seniority within their classification. The employee with the lowest seniority being laid off first. Employees selected for layoff may bump less senior employees in another equal or lower classification within the bargaining unit previously held.

The Employer may layoff out of the order set forth within this section upon presentation of evidence the operating needs of the division require a special qualification, training, or skill.

Section 7 - Notice of Layoff. A written notice of layoff shall be given to the laid off employees at least twenty (20) working days prior to the effective date.

Section 8 - Temporary and Probationary Employees. Temporary employees shall be laid off first and probationary period employees next, before regular employees in the same class are laid off.

Section 9 - Placement of Laid-Off Employees on Layoff Register. The names of employees who have been laid off shall be placed on a layoff register rated by seniority.

An employee's name shall remain on the register for two (2) years from the date of layoff. An employee's name may be removed for any of the following reasons:

A. Inability to contact the employee by mail at the employee's last known address.

B. Rejection by the employee of an offer to return to a vacancy in the job classification held previous to layoff.

C. A written statement by the employee that he/she has no further interest in returning to Court employment.

Section 10 - Reinstatement. An employee who is laid off may be reinstated to a vacancy within two (2) years of layoff provided the employee has satisfactorily performed the duties and passed the probationary or trial service period of the vacant position. Such employees shall be credited with:
A. Assumption of the previous seniority and increment dates adjusted for the time spent on layoff;

B. The previous rate of vacation accrual based on years of service as of the time of layoff;

C. Reinstatement of previous sick leave accrual balances; however, if any previous payment for accrued sick leave had been received, it must first be repaid (in one lump sum payment), or no credit may take place;

D. Regular status only if reinstatement is to a position from which layoff occurred and if regular status had been previously attained;

E. Benefits in accordance with any restrictions or waiting period imposed by plan documents (Medical/Dental/Life).

ARTICLE 11 - PROBATIONARY/TRIAL SERVICE PERIOD

Section 1 - Purpose. Probationary and trial service periods are working test periods and shall be an integral part of the examination process and shall be utilized as an opportunity to observe an employee's work, to train and aid the employee in adjustment to his/her position, and to reject any employee whose work performance fails to meet required work standards.

Section 2 - Duration. All new employment and all promotional appointments of regular employees shall be tentative and subject to a probationary or trial service period which starts upon the effective date of an appointment.

The probationary period for initial appointment with the Court shall be twelve (12) months in duration.

A trial service period following promotion shall be twelve (12) months in duration.

Employees serving their initial probationary period who are promoted to another position will serve a full twelve (12) months initial probationary period total in the two positions. The promoted employee shall also serve a full twelve (12) month trial service period in the new position once the probationary period is completed. Trial service employees who are promoted to another position shall serve a full twelve (12) month trial service period in the new position.

In the event an employee is on leave for more than ten (10) consecutive working days during a probationary or trial service period, the completion date may be extended by an amount of time equal to the period of leave.
Section 3 - Removal During Initial Probationary Period. At any time during a new employee's probationary period the Employer may remove an employee whose performance does not meet the required standards, provided that he/she shall report the removal and the reasons therefore in writing before the effective date of separation to the employee concerned and the Association. Notice of ten (10) working days shall be given an employee who is removed, or pay in the same amount in lieu of notice. The formula annual salary divided by annual work schedule hours is used to calculate the standard hourly rate for calculation of pay in lieu of notice. Dismissal during the probationatory period is not grievable.

Section 4 - Trial Service Reversion.

A. Promotion within the bargaining unit. An employee serving as a result of appointment through promotion to another position in the bargaining unit who does not successfully complete the trial service period shall be reinstated in his/her former position or in one of like status and pay.

B. Promotion outside the bargaining unit. An employee who was promoted from outside the bargaining unit, but within the Court, shall be reinstated to the former bargaining unit position if the employee does not successfully complete the trial service period. Employees shall only have this right during the first six (6) months of the appointment or up to twelve (12) months if the position is vacant or occupied by a probationary employee.

C. Position Vacancy. If a position is not vacant which will be affected by subsection A or B above, because of a promoted employee needing to be reinstated in his/her former position, the layoff procedure will apply to the employee being bumped.

D. Removal during a trial service period is not grievable.

ARTICLE 12 - PROMOTION PROCEDURE

Section 1. Employees shall be entitled to apply for available openings within the Court. The ultimate responsibility for determining promotion, transfer or the filling of any position lies with the Employer, who shall exercise reasonable judgment in making such determination.

Section 2. Job announcements shall be posted by the Employer for a minimum of seven (7) working days. Public advertising to seek applicants outside the bargaining unit will take place concurrent with posting within the bargaining unit. All applicants within the bargaining unit who meet minimum qualifications and pass an initial job-related exam shall be placed on a ranked register along with outside candidates. In-house candidates whose names appear on the register will be granted an interview regardless of their ranking.

Section 3. Any employee seeking the promotion shall complete a regular Court employment application listing his/her qualifications and any other required information, and present same to the Employer during the minimum seven (7) working days posting. Requirements for the position must be met as described in the appropriate job announcement and job description. Qualifications and ability shall be determined by the following criteria and shall be the primary consideration:

Juvenile Detention Supervisors Association
Collective Bargaining Agreement (Non-Economic Contract)
January 1, 2019 – December 31, 2020
A. Qualifications: Written qualification identified in the specific job announcement and job description for the open position must be clearly documented and met in the application.

B. Ability:
(1) A job related test that is reasonable and non-discriminatory. Where the position requires operation of equipment, an operational test shall be included. An answer sheet shall exist and all tests shall be approved by the Court Administrator or designee;
(2) An oral interview that contains an averaged numbered score. The same areas of inquiry shall be used for all candidates for a specific opening.

Section 4. The Association shall have the right to review any tests, rating sheets or eligibility registers used during the promotional or hiring process.

Section 5. Any bargaining unit member may request reassignment to a specific function within their classification based on seniority, where/when applicable. This will apply only to open or new positions. If a bargaining unit member is granted such re-assignment, he/she will not be eligible for another reassignment for six months, unless approved by the Employer. Such reassignment will not impede management's ability to make necessary changes in assignments in response to fluctuations in workload, funding, legislative changes, Judicial or County policy, new initiatives, or other factors. Management will provide information and the rationale for any such changes to the bargaining unit prior to initiating them.

ARTICLE 13 - DISCIPLINE AND TERMINATION

Section 1. The Employer retains the right to discipline, suspend or discharge regular employees, subject to the grievance procedure in this agreement as to whether or not such action was for cause.

Section 2. The Employer agrees to follow the principles of progressive discipline. Disciplinary action generally includes the following progressive steps:

A. Oral warning which shall be reduced to writing;
B. Written reprimand;
C. Suspension or demotion; and
D. Discharge

Disciplinary action will be tailored to the nature and severity of the offense. Management maintains the right to take disciplinary action as they deem appropriate which may include skipping above steps to address severe discipline issues.

ARTICLE 14 - LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Employer and the Association have established a Labor-Management Committee which will meet periodically during the term of this Agreement. The function of The Committee shall be to meet to discuss issues of mutual interest or concern and to further a harmonious working relationship between the employees, the Employer and the Association.
The Committee will meet as mutually agreed to by the parties.

Not less than one week before a meeting of the Committee is scheduled each party will advise the other in writing of matters which the party wishes to discuss.

ARTICLE 15 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1 - Grievance Defined.

A. A grievance shall be defined as a dispute or disagreement raised by an employee or the Association against the Employer involving the interpretation or application of the specific provisions of this Agreement. The grievance procedure is the exclusive remedy for claims that the contract has been violated. A grievance shall be processed as set forth below, provided that time limits and/or procedure steps may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties. For purposes of this article, working days means Monday through Friday (except holidays).

B. Complaints which allege a violation of Article 1 of this Agreement are not subject to this grievance procedure, but may be referred to the Labor Management Committee consisting of two (2) representatives of the Employer and two (2) representatives of the Association.

C. Any grievance filed as a class action grievance shall be reviewed, approved and submitted by the Association and shall be signed by the Association President.

Section 2 - Grievance Procedure.

Step 1. To be valid, a grievance must be submitted to the employee’s supervisor within ten (10) working days from the occurrence on which the alleged grievance is based, or within ten (10) working days of the date when the employee knew of or should have known of the occurrence, but in no event more than sixty (60) calendar days from the date of the occurrence. The written grievance shall set forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the Article allegedly violated, and the relief requested. A grievance meeting shall be held within ten (10) working days of the supervisor’s receipt of the grievance, and the supervisor will submit a written grievance answer within ten (10) working days of the meeting to the employee and President of the Association.

Step 2. If the grievance was not settled at Step 1, it may be advanced by the Association to the Assistant Administrator or designee within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Step 1 answer. A grievance meeting shall be held within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance, and a written grievance answer will be given within ten (10) working days of the meeting to the President of the Association.
Step 3. If the grievance was not settled at Step 2, it may be advanced by the Association to the Superior Court Administrator or his/her designee within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Step 2 answer. A grievance meeting shall be held within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance, and a written grievance answer will be given within ten (10) working days of the meeting to the President of the Local and the Staff Representative.

Step 4. Grievance Mediation (Optional). If the grievance is not settled at Step 3, the Association and the Court may agree to submit the grievance to mediation. Within twenty (20) working days of such agreement, the two (2) parties shall agree upon a mediator.

The mediator will not have authority to compel resolution of the grievance. The parties will not be limited solely to the facts and arguments presented at earlier steps of the grievance procedure. No transcript or record of the mediation conference will be made nor will formal rules of evidence be followed. If a settlement is not reached in mediation, the grievance may be appealed to arbitration in accordance with the procedure in Step 5 below. In this case, the mediator may not serve as arbitrator, nor may any party reference the fact that a mediation conference was held or not held. Nothing said or done in mediation or settlement discussions may be referenced or introduced into evidence at the arbitration hearing.

Step 5. Arbitration Procedure. If the grievance is not settled in accordance with the foregoing procedure at Step 3 or Mediation, the Association or Employer, as the "moving party," may refer the grievance to arbitration by providing a written request for arbitration to the opposing party within twenty (20) working days after receipt of the Employer's answer to Step 3, or ten (10) working days following conclusion of mediation. If the request for arbitration is not sent within twenty (20) working days, or ten (10) working days if following mediation, the moving party waives its right to pursue the grievance through the arbitration procedure.

Upon receipt of the request for arbitration, the Court and the Association shall have thirty (30) working days to attempt to select a sole arbitrator by mutual agreement. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within this time period, the moving party shall have an additional thirty (30) working days in which to request the PERC to submit a panel of nine (9) arbitrators for which the parties will use to select an arbitrator via the alternate strike procedure, specified below. If the moving party fails to make such a request from the PERC within this time period, the moving party waives its right to pursue the grievance through the arbitration procedure.
A. Upon receipt of the list of nine (9) arbitrators from the PERC, the Court and Association shall alternately strike names of arbitrators until one arbitrator's name is left who shall be arbitrator. The moving party shall strike first. The moving party has the burden of timely initiating the alternate strike procedure, but in no event shall the parties fail to complete the alternate strike procedure within sixty (60) working days of the date the PERC mailed them the list of arbitrators. Failure to initiate the alternate strike procedure within this period will result in the moving party waiving its right to pursue the grievance through the arbitration procedure.

B. When an arbitrator has been selected, using any of the above procedures, the moving party has the burden of notifying the arbitrator of his/her selection by sending a joint letter from the parties requesting that he/she set a time and a place for hearing, subject to the availability of the Court and Association representatives. If the moving party fails to send this notification to the arbitrator within thirty (30) working days of his/her selection, the moving party waives its right to pursue the grievance through the arbitration procedure.

C. Once an arbitrator is selected, he/she shall have jurisdiction over the hearing and any pre-hearing matters arising between the parties concerning the grievance at-issue, unless the parties mutually agree to rescind the appointment of the arbitrator. If the Association prevails, the Court will pay the fee and expenses of the arbitrator. If the Court prevails, the Association shall pay the fee and expenses of the arbitrator. If the loser or winner cannot be identified, the arbitrator will determine the basis upon which the fee will be split. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the provisions of this agreement. He/she shall consider and decide only the specific issue submitted to him/her in writing by the Court and the Association, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not submitted to him/her. The arbitrator shall submit his/her decision in writing within thirty (30) days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension thereof. The decision shall be based solely upon his/her interpretation of the meaning or application of the express terms of this Agreement to the facts of the grievance presented. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding. Each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses.

Section 3. Nothing herein shall prevent an employee from seeking assistance of the Association, or the Association from furnishing such assistance at any stage of the grievance procedure.
Section 4. No issue whatsoever shall be arbitrated or subject to arbitration unless such issue results from an action or occurrence which takes place following the execution date of this Agreement, and no arbitration award shall be made by the arbitrator which grants any right or relief for any period whatsoever prior to the execution date of this Agreement.

Section 5. Any grievance filed on behalf of a group of employees or a class action grievance shall be reviewed, approved and submitted by the Association Executive Board and shall be signed by the Association President.

Section 6 - Election of Remedies. It is agreed that taking a grievance appeal to arbitration constitutes an election of remedies and a waiver of all rights by the appealing employee, the Association, and persons it represents to litigate or otherwise contest the appealed subject matter in any Court or other available forum. Likewise, litigation or other contest of the subject matter in any Court or other available forum shall constitute an election of remedies and a waiver of right to arbitrate the matter.

Section 7. Complaints which allege a violation of Article 2 of this Agreement are not subject to this grievance procedure, but may be referred to the Labor-Management Committee.

ARTICLE 16 - SAVINGS CLAUSE

If any article or section of this contract shall be held invalid by operation of law or by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the balance of this contract shall continue in full force and effect, and either party shall have the right of renegotiations for the purpose of adequate replacement provided that the invalidation of such article or section does not have a significant bearing on any other article or section of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 17 - SUPREMACY AND EXTRA AGREEMENTS

Section 1. The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with Court employees, individually or collectively, which is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and not approved by the Association.

Section 2. In the event of conflict, this Agreement shall control over County ordinance, policy or rule.
ARTICLE 18 - ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in the Agreement each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. The parties agree that no oral or written statement shall add to or supersede any of the provisions of this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Association, for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement.

ARTICLE 19 - DURATION

Unless otherwise provided, all provisions of this Agreement shall become effective on the date executed and shall remain in effect through December 31, 2020.
