

CONTACT INFORMATION

Parks and its division's administrative office will be closed to the public. This is in accord to reduce community spread of COVID-19 by implementing community mitigation strategies relating to the public access to the main County administration buildings. Many jurisdictions throughout the state of Washington have undertaken measures to limit general public access to their administrative buildings in an effort to protect the provision of essential governmental services. We are still able to do business through the telephone and the Internet.

Following is a list of resources to access our services.
