Snohomish County Town Hall on Racism and Criminal Justice Reform

On June 22nd from 6:00pm to 8:00pm the Snohomish County Council will host a town hall on racism and criminal justice reform via Zoom. The council invites all members of the public to join the conversation. Other county elected officials and leaders will be invited as well to hear the ideas of our community members.

The council would like to use this as an opportunity to listen to input from the residents of Snohomish County and ask that people share their stories and experiences with racism and criminal justice reform, and bring ideas forward if they have them.

For members of the public whom decide to provide public comments on these matters, you can digitally raise your hand in the meeting using the small hand icon. If you are calling in, press *9 to raise your hand. You will be called on when it is your turn to speak. Further instructions will be displayed on the screen during the meeting.
