

Notice of Land Disturbing Activity (LDA) Permit Application

Talotam Lodge Acquisition- South Fork Stillaguamish River

Project Description:

Snohomish County Public Works proposes to acquire six parcels that have been continually damaged due to repeated flooding. These parcels have river frontage on the South Fork Stillaguamish River. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) considers the properties substantially damaged and agrees to fund the flood mitigation strategy for acquisition of the properties. Following acquisition, all structures will be demolished, the septic and well decommissioned, and the driveway de-compacted. All disturbed areas will be stabilized with mulch and planted with native plants. Existing native vegetation will be preserved where possible. This project is not considered “development” under WAC 173-27-030(6).

Project Location:

This site is located northwest of Granite Falls, on the South Fork Stillaguamish River at 17115 116Th Pl NE Arlington, WA Section 11, Township 30N, Range 6E, W.M.
Clearing: 20,000 square feet
Grading: 200 cubic yards
The removal of structures and replanting is scheduled for Fall 2020.
