

Superior Court
Of Snohomish County

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 23 - 06

LIMITED JURISDICTION IN DEPENDENCY
AND FAMILY COURT

Adopted: August 15, 2003
Updated: December 12, 2006

Snohomish County Superior Court hereby orders where a dependency action has been filed in Charles R. Denney Juvenile Justice Center, limited concurrent jurisdiction to hear and decide issues of paternity and/or child support shall be automatically vested in both the Juvenile Court and the Family Court, so long as the State is a party to the action in each court.

The Office of the Attorney General shall continue to represent the State in dependency matters before the Juvenile Court. The Family Support Section of the Snohomish County Prosecutors will represent the State in paternity and support matters before the Family Court.
