Snohomish County Tomorrow Annual Assembly (Virtual)
Assessing and Learning from COVID-19's Effect: An Overview of 2020 Trends

EVERETT, Wash., January 12, 2021 — Many things about life in our region changed dramatically with the COVID-19 pandemic. Come hear three speakers address economic trends, the changed trends in traffic, aviation, population and employment, as well as changing demands on infrastructure as a result of telework. Our speakers will be: Josh Brown, Executive Director of Puget Sound Regional Council; Russ Elliott, Director of Washington State's Broadband Office; and Chris Mefford, Interim President and CEO of Economic Alliance Snohomish County.

The presentations will start at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, January 27, 2021, and will take place virtually. The public is invited to listen in; see details below for how to register. This program is being co-sponsored by Snohomish County Tomorrow (SCT) and Snohomish County Cities (SCC).

To register please visit <https://www.snohomishcountywa.gov/168> or contact Cynthia Pruitt, SCT Coordinator, at Cynthia.Pruitt@snoco.org.

About Snohomish County Tomorrow (SCT)

Snohomish County Tomorrow is a cooperative forum with representatives from Snohomish County and 19 of its cities, as well as from the Tulalip Tribes. The group's primary function is to oversee Countywide Planning Policies – written policies on growth management from which the county and cities' comprehensive land use plans are developed.

About Snohomish County Cities

SCC is based on these values:

- Advocate for our communities
- Engage local leaders to meet shared challenges
- Partner to create a vibrant, thriving county
