Date: March 15, 2021

Some trial dates were scheduled during the week of judicial conference, April 26-30, 2021. There will be no judges available to hear trials that week. Parties affected by this scheduling conflict will receive a letter at the address of court record with information about rescheduling their trial. The information included in the letter is provided below.

For Civil Trials, parties may select one of the following options:

- 1) Submit an agreed continuance in the normal course; OR
- 2) Set a motion on the presiding calendar to request a continuance if you are requesting a short continuance; OR
- 3) Confirm the trial in the normal course. The court will continue the case at the time of trial call. This will apply to court confirmed trials that have not utilized the above options.

The court apologizes for any inconvenience this causes. The dates for the judicial conference are usually known well in advance and trials are not set during that time period. However, this year, the dates were not announced until recently and this complication was unavoidable.
