

James Foye Homestead

James Foye, his brothers and his father, Arial, cleared 200 acres for dairy farming on the original 1877 homestead and on James' adjoining land in the Tualco Valley. In 1906, James married Bessie Peterson and their family grew with 10 children, two of whom still live on James' original farm which now produces beef cattle.

Owners: Kenneth L. Foye Sr., Norma Foye Wells Glendon Foye, Rayma Foye
Birdsall and Ina Lee Foye

Above: Moving house onto current site

Right: Original house with current additions

