

Steffen Farm

In 1900 Herman and Lena Steffen arrived in Monroe with their 2 small children and purchased 75 acres on the Ben Howard Rd.. First selling butter, eggs and vegetable, they soon bought 2 registered Holstein heifers, a small start to a large herd. The farm and woodland grew to 290 acres. Now the Steffens raise dairy replacements and beef cattle.

Owners: Don &
Elma Steffen

Above:
Current farm sign
Right:
Historic farm

