Weekly Update for SMART Case #21-01

Smart Incident 21-01

SNOHOMISH, Wash. – Detectives with the Snohomish County Multiple Agency Response Team (SMART) continue to investigate the use of force incident that occurred on September 27 in a parking lot of Clearview Plaza (17500 block of SR-9). The suspect, a 39-year-old man, was released from Harborview Medical Center on October 11 and booked into King County Jail. He is awaiting trial for first-degree murder, first-degree assault, first-degree robbery, unlawful possession of a firearm and a gross misdemeanor.

Previous weekly updates related to the SMART investigation mistakenly reported that the 39-year-old suspect was still hospitalized at Harborview Medical Center.

The investigation is ongoing and all weekly updates for this case are posted on the SMART Investigations webpage.

###

The investigation is being conducted by the Snohomish County Multiple Agency Response Team \(SMART\). SMART is a team of investigators, evidence technicians, records specialist, and public information officers from various Snohomish County law enforcement agencies and Washington State Patrol, who respond to, and investigate, police use of force incidents. There are civilian community members that also serve on the SMART team per the Law Enforcement Training and Community Safety Act (LETSCA). When the SMART investigation is complete, results will be forwarded to the Snohomish County Prosecutor's Office for review.

SMART News Releases and public updates can be located on the Snohomish County SMART Investigations page.
