

What to do and when to do it — for students with a developmental disability

AGE

If my child has a developmental disability, here are some timelines of activities to do.

15-16	Apply for a Washington State I.D. card. WHY: It will be needed to apply for adult services.	 Get an I.D. card at your local Department of Licensing - www.dol.wa.gov
16	Apply to become a client of the Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA). WHY: You may want these service options when your son/daughter turns 21. Long term job coaching support is based on availability of funding.	 www.dshs.wa.gov/dda/
17-17½	Consider if guardianship is necessary and determine the type of guardianship. WHY: Age 18 is the age of majority (becoming a legal adult) and your son/daughter may need support making legal, medical and vocational decisions.	Guardianship https://thearc.org/decision-making-resources
17-19	Apply for HUD Housing. WHY: The wait list for housing can be very long, so it is important to apply early.	 www.hud.gov
18	If your child does not receive Social Security Benefits – apply now! WHY: He or she is now an adult and parents' income is not counted. He/she may be eligible for cash and medical benefits. There are many provisions available, called WORK INCENTIVES, that allow people with disabilities to keep benefits, including Medicare/Medicaid, while working. He or she needs to pay rent to the family in order to maximize all benefits.	 ssa.gov
18	Ask your DDA case manager about Medicaid Personal Care funding if your son or daughter is a client of DDA and the family provides personal care (help with bathing, grooming, dressing, laundry, etc.).	Medicaid Personal Care Funding
Young Men 18	Register for Selective Services. WHY: It's the law. Also, if planning to apply for financial aid to attend college, applying for Selective Service is required.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apply on line at: http://www.sss.gov • Get a form from your local post office. • Return the form that comes in the mail.
Senior Year	Fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). WHY: If seeking aid to attend college, this form must be filled out by March 1 of Senior year for best consideration.	 https://studentaid.gov/h/apply-for-aid/afsa
19-21 or last year of school	Apply for services with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR). WHY: This agency helps people with disabilities become employed and understands how working will affect people's benefits.	 www.dshs.wa.gov/dvr/
Anytime	Apply for job search assistance with WorkSource Youth Services. WHY: This is the local program that can help self-directed job seekers find part time and/or summer employment to help develop work skills.	 www.worksourceonline.com
Anytime	Call for local transit system bus Travel Training and Paratransit services. WHY: This is free training for people who want to learn to be independent on the bus and flexible alternative public transportation for people with disabilities and the elderly.	Travel Training & Paratransit Services www.communitytransit.org Search for 'Travel Training'
Anytime	Apply for services at a local center for independent living (CIL). The State Independent Living Council [SILC] can help you find local resources. WHY: These organizations provide support for independent living skills development, advocacy, and benefits planning.	 www.wasilc.org
