Program Opportunity:
Trauma-Informed Practices Consultation for Schools & Districts

Snohomish County Human Services Behavioral Health is offering an opportunity for your District to implement and embed Trauma-Informed Practices (TIP) & Trauma-Informed Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (T-MTSS) in public schools. Please join the other participating schools and Districts by submitting an application, available on the County website.

Why Join this Partnership?
Create system-level change, with a strong foundation for sustainable, equitable, trauma-informed MTSS practices.

Trauma-Informed Equitable & Restorative Practices

Areas of Focus:
- System-Level Action & Implementation Plans
- Trauma-Informed Multi-Tiered Systems of Support
- Social Emotional Learning (SEL) for Students & Staff
- Evidence-Based Behavioral Interventions
- Culturally Responsive Pedagogy
- School Culture & Climate
- Inclusionary Practices
- Restorative Practices
- Data Analysis & Support

Outcomes
- Increased graduation rates
- Increased sense of collective and self-efficacy
- Increased teaching time
- Increased attendance & decreased exclusionary discipline
- Increased sense of belonging & self-competency
- Increased safety, trust, & transparency
- Staff retention & whole staff wellness
- Meeting state & individualized district & school goals
- Common language & understanding

Current Participants:
Five cohorts, comprised of 22 Snohomish County schools, elementary through high school, & three whole Districts

For more information & to access the application please visit: www.SnohomishCare.com

Questions? Amanda.Franke@snoco.org